

John Schiappa

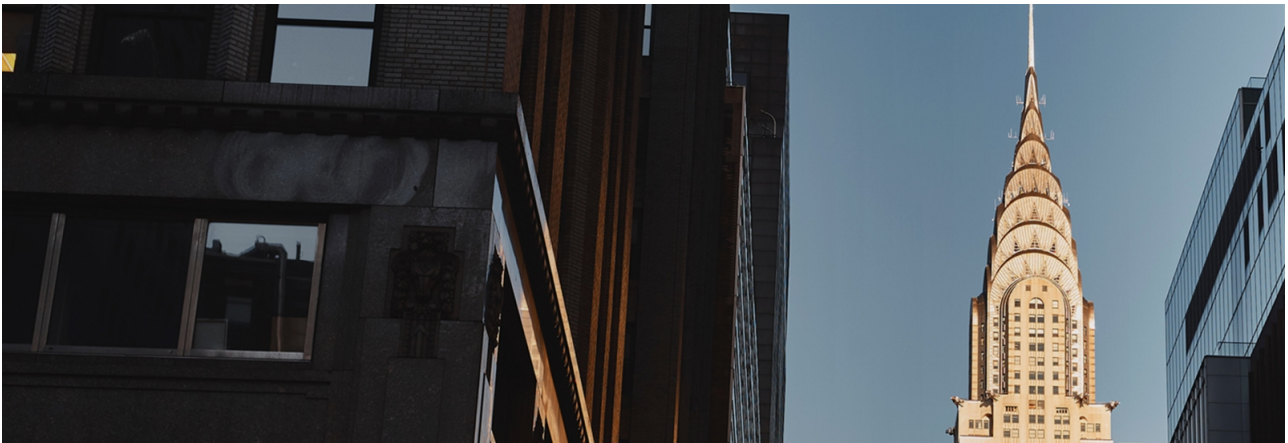

Communication Expert
New York, NY

Expertise: Communications

Last Updated: October 15, 2019

BACKGROUND & EXPERIENCE

John Schiappa helps Crenshaw clients maximize their skills to be more successful landing their message internally or externally with the media, making presentations, and speaking at team meetings and town halls, as well as keynote speeches. John has 25 years of executive communications training and translates lessons learned in theatre and film to the business arena. He brings a unique set of tools to help Fortune 500 business executives who use presentations and communications in their leadership roles. John works with them to focus their material, discover their authentic voice, connect to their audiences, and deliver their message so it is heard, understood, and executed with success.
